EDITORIAL NOTE

This finding aid, like the earlier index of volumes 1-12, is arranged in three sections. Part One is a classified list of main articles; within each sub-heading articles are listed in alphabetical order of authors. Part Two lists the main articles arranged in alphabetical order of authors. Part Three is a general index of subjects, persons and places. In each entry the volume number is given separated from the page numbers by a colon.

The following articles/parts of articles have not been indexed:

Editorial notes
Book Reviews
Conference Reports
Letters
Footnotes
Bibliographies
Lists of references

Several articles themselves contain indexed lists e.g. Dom Philip Jebb's article on Benedictine Archives (vol. 14, pp. 20-36) includes a list of individual monks of St Gregory's, Downside. In such cases a reference will be found in the general index to the list as a whole but the individual entries within these lists have not been indexed again. Extracts from archive catalogues have been treated in the same way.

The details given by authors of the names of persons vary considerably from mere surnames to full names and titles. This has caused some difficulties in aggregating references to individuals in the general index, e.g. is the "Bishop Grant" referred to on page 35 of vol. 14 the same person as "Bishop Thomas Grant" on page 12 of vol. 14? Possibly the context of the two references would provide some clue but the time and effort involved in resolving these uncertainties was felt to be unwarranted and these entries are listed separately in case they in fact refer to different persons.

Institutions based in a particular place are listed with the place name first, e.g. "The English College Rome" will be found under "Rome, English College". There are a small number of institutions with well known names but from less well known places; in such cases a cross reference is provided e.g. "Douai Abbey: see Little Woolhampton". The subjects of main articles have also been included with their page references distinguished from other entries by bold type.

I would like to thank members of the Society's Publications Sub-Committee who kindly proof read this booklet. Despite their and my best efforts there will almost inevitably be some remaining errors, variations or omissions; for these I ask the reader's indulgence.

THE CATHOLIC ARCHIVES SOCIETY

The Catholic Archives Society was founded in March 1979 to promote the care and preservation of the archives of the dioceses, religious foundations, institutions and societies of the Roman Catholic Church in the United Kingdom and Ireland, in order that these may be of greater administrative service to the organisations they concern and may become accessible for academic research and cultural purposes.

The Society seeks to attain these objectives by promoting the identification and listing of Catholic archives, by providing Catholic archivists with information, technical advice and training opportunities, by arranging an annual conference and occasional seminars, by publishing Catholic Archives, a yearly periodical devoted to the description of the archives of the Roman Catholic Church in the United Kingdom and Ireland, and by circulating a newsletter, CAS Bulletin, and information sheets among its members.

Membership

Membership is open to any institution or individual person interested in the objects of the Society. The full annual subscription, inclusive of Catholic Archives, is £15. The annual subscription to Catholic Archives alone, inclusive of postage, is £5.

Applications for full membership and all enquiries concerning the Society should be addressed to Mrs M. Harcourt-Williams, Innyngs House, Hatfield Park, Hatfield,Hertfordshire, AL9 5PL.

e-mail: margaret.hw@tiscali.co.uk

Publications and Editorial Communications

Applications for subscriptions to Catholic Archives and sales of all the Society's publications, including back issues of Catholic Archives, should be addressed to Mr P. T. Bracken (Ref. C.A.S.), 43 Garthland Drive, Glasgow G31 2RE, Scotland, from whom details of current prices and discounts can be obtained.

Editorial Communications for Catholic Archives should be addressed to Rev. S. Foster, Brentwood Diocesan Archives, Cathedral House, Ingrave Road, Brentwood, Essex CM15 8AT.

General correspondence on matters concerning the Publications Sub-Committee, excluding requests for back issues of CAS publications, should be addressed to Sister M. C. McCarren FCJ, 24 Singleton Road, Salford M7 4WL.
